Author Spotlight: Charlie Lovett

Described as "a former antiquarian bookseller, an avid book collector, and a member of The Grolier Club, the oldest and largest club for bibliophiles in North America," it's little surprise this author's fiction tends to focus on the literary and topics of interest to bibliophiles. His bestselling novels include:

First Impressions: A Novel of Old Books, Unexpected Love, and Jane Austen

The Bookman's Tale

His latest novel, The Lost Book of the Grail, is officially summarized as, "an obsessive bibliophile's quest through time to discover a missing manuscript, the unknown history of an English Cathedral, and the secret of the Holy Grail."

Lovett is also a teacher and playwright. You can learn more about the author at his website: www.charlielovett.com

February 2017 Nonfiction Highlights...

You Are the Universe

by Deepak Chopra and Menas Kafatos

"What these two great minds offer is a bold, new understanding of who we are and how we can transform the world for the better while reaching our greatest potential."

This Life I Live

by Rory Feek

"A gifted man from nowhere.... A young woman from the Midwest with an angelic voice and deep roots that just needed a place to be planted.... Two hearts that found each other and touched millions of other hearts along the way."

Norse Mythology

by Neil Gaiman

"Through Gaiman's deft and witty prose emerge these gods with their fiercely competitive natures, their susceptibility to being duped and to duping others, and their tendency to let passion ignite their actions, making these long-ago myths breathe pungent life again."

Lessons from the Pack

by Cesar Millan

"Millan uses decades of experience to reveal the many ways that dogs and people can enrich each other's lives, sharing eight essential life lessons imparted by a group of very special dogs he's trained over the years."

The Book Thieves

by Anders Rydell

"For readers of The Monuments Men and The Hare with Amber Eyes, the story of the Nazis' systematic pillaging of Europe's libraries, and the small team of heroic librarians now working to return the stolen books to their rightful owners."

The Inkblots

by Damion Searls

"The captivating untold story of Hermann Rorschach and his famous inkblot test, which has shaped our view of human personality and become a fixture in popular culture."

Nonfiction Author Spotlight: Pankaj Mishra

This author, who specializes in book-length studies of historical and contemporary Asia, has a new book coming out in February: Age of Anger: A History of the Present. According to the publisher, Mishra "reveals the hidden history of our current global crisis" by returning first to the eighteenth century and working his way back to the present through a series of "startling connections and comparisons."

Other nonfiction titles by this author include:

From the Ruins of Empire: The Intellectuals Who Remade Asia

Temptations of the West: How to Be Modern in India, Pakistan, Tibet and Beyond
