Author Spotlight: Paul Auster

Readers who enjoy fiction of a more literary order can appreciate the way Auster crafts his multi-layered works rife with pensive characters, symbolism, and “stories within stories.” Some of his most popular titles include:

The Book of Illusions
The Brooklyn Follies
Leviathan
Man in the Dark
Mr. Vertigo
Oracle Night
Sunset Park

His latest novel, 4321, is described by the publisher as Auster’s “greatest, most heartbreaking and satisfying novel – a sweeping and surprising story of birthright and possibility, of love and of life itself: a masterpiece.”

Auster is also well-regarded for his autobiographical works, including Report from the Interior and Winter Journal.

January 2017 Nonfiction Highlights...

Storm in a Teacup: The Physics of Everyday Life
by Helen Czerski
"In an engaging voice at once warm and witty, Czerski shares her stunning breadth of knowledge to lift the veil of familiarity from the ordinary. You may never look at your toaster the same way."

Letters to a Young Muslim
by Omar Saif Ghobash
"In a series of personal letters to his son, Omar Saif Ghobash offers a short and highly readable manifesto that tackles our current global crisis with the training of an experienced diplomat and the personal responsibility of a father."

My Life, My Love, My Legacy
by Coretta Scott King
"A love story, a family saga, and the memoir of an extraordinary black woman in twentieth-century America, a brave leader who, in the face of terrorism and violent hatred, stood committed, proud, forgiving, nonviolent, and hopeful every day of her life."

Dust Bowl Girls
by Lydia Reeder
"The Boys in the Boat meets A League of Their Own in this true story of a Depression-era championship women's team."

Reality Is Not What it Seems
by Carlo Rovelli
"A closer look at the mind-bending nature of the universe. His evocative explanations invite us to imagine, beyond our ever-changing idea of reality, a whole new world that has yet to be discovered."

Mrs. Sherlock Holmes
by Brad Ricca
"This story is about a woman whose work was so impressive that the papers gave her the nickname of fiction's greatest sleuth."

Nonfiction Author Spotlight: James Kwak

This writer and blogger explores economics, the national debt, and related topics through his books, including his latest work, Economicism: Bad Economics and the Rise of Inequality, which the publisher describes as a "bracing deconstruction of the framework for understanding the world that is learned as gospel in Economics 101, regardless of its imaginary assumptions and misleading half-truths."

Other titles by this author include:

13 Bankers: The Wall Street Takeover and the Next Financial Meltdown

White House Burning: The Founding Fathers, Our National Debt, and Why It Matters to You
