New Library Catalog Tools

We have developed several new ways to help you access and enjoy materials in the library catalog. In addition to Thrall's own entry page to the library catalog, we now offer a new Children's Catalog, along with a Young Adult Catalog, a Government Information catalog, and Local History catalog.

Through these pages, you can search or browse by topic, author, and more! From the Children's or Young Adult catalog pages you can also explore book lists, awarded books, and reviews from the American Library Association and others.

You can access these in the library as well as through our website by going through our home page (www.thrall.org) and clicking on the Library Catalog link: once you do, select any of the Thrall Catalog links on the right side of that page.
