Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

Outside Looking In
by T. C. Boyle

"It's an utterly engaging and occasionally trippy look at the nature of reality, identity, and consciousness, as well as our seemingly infinite capacities for creativity, re-invention, and self-discovery."

The Book of Dreams
by Nina George

"A revelatory, urgently human story that examines what we consider serious and painful alongside light and whimsy, The Book of Dreams is a tender meditation on memory, liminality, and empathy, asking with grace and gravitas what we will truly find meaningful in our lives once we are gone."

Damascus Road
by Jay Parini

Parini explores the transformative experience of Saul of Tarsus, a former persecutor of Jesus' followers. Along the road to Damascus, Saul experienced a vision which forever changed him into a believer – eventually to become the person better known as Paul the Apostle or Saint Paul.

Fiction Author Spotlight: Ian McEwan

McEwan's stories hinge on transformative experiences which challenge and change his complex characters, producing often haunting and thought-provoking narratives. Some of his most popular titles include:

Amsterdam
Atonement
Enduring Love
Nutshell
On Chesil Beach
Saturday
Solar
Sweet Tooth

McEwan's latest novel, Machines Like Me, "poses fundamental questions: What makes us human? Our outward deeds or our inner lives? Could a machine understand the human heart?" It's also a cautionary tale of inventing "things beyond our control."
