Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

Carnegie's Maid by Marie Benedict

"From the author of The Other Einstein, the mesmerizing tale of what kind of woman could have inspired an American dynasty."

Fools and Mortals by Bernard Cornwell

"Cornwell makes a dramatic departure with this enthralling, action-packed standalone novel that tells the story of the first production of A Midsummer Night's Dream - as related by William Shakespeare's estranged younger brother."

A Music Shop by Rachel Joyce

"The journey that these two quirky, wonderful characters make in order to overcome their emotional baggage speaks to the healing power of music--and love--in this poignant, ultimately joyful work of fiction."

January 2018 Nonfiction Highlights...

Videocracy
by Kevin Allocca
"From YouTube's Head of Culture and Trends, a rousing and illuminating behind-the-scenes exploration of internet video's massive impact on our world."

Treating People Well
by Lea Berman
"A guide to personal and professional empowerment through civility and social skills, written by two White House Social Secretaries who offer an important fundamental message: everyone is important and everyone deserves to be treated well."

Advice Not Given
by Mark Epstein
"Speaking clearly and directly, he offers a rethinking of mindfulness that encourages people to be more watchful of their ego, an idea with a strong foothold in Buddhism but now for the first time applied in the context of psychotherapy."

Craeft
by Alex Langlands
"Rediscovering craft will connect us with our human past, our sense of place, and our remarkable capacity to survive in the harshest of landscapes. Craft helps us more fully appreciate human ingenuity and the passing on of traditions from generation to generation."

The Wizard and the Prophet
by Charles C. Mann
"An incisive portrait of the two little-known twentieth-century scientists... whose diametrically opposed views shaped our ideas about the environment, laying the groundwork for how people in the twenty-first century will choose to live in tomorrow's world."

When: The Scientific Secrets of Perfect Timing
by Daniel Pink
"Pink distills cutting-edge research and data on timing and synthesizes them into a fascinating, readable narrative packed with irresistible stories and practical takeaways that give readers compelling insights into how we can live richer, more engaged lives."

Nonfiction Author Spotlight: Dave Eggers

This versatile writer's works span both fiction and nonfiction. Each book's topic drives the tone: serious when necessary, humorous when welcome, reflective wherever essential. His latest work of nonfiction is Monk Mokha, "a heart-pounding true story that weaves together the history of coffee, the struggles of everyday Yemenis living through civil war and the courageous journey of a young man—a Muslim and a U.S. citizen—following the most American of dreams."

Other nonfiction works include:
A Heartbreaking Work of Staggering Genius
Zeitoun

Popular fiction titles by Eggers include:
The Circle*, A Hologram for the King, What Is the What, and The Wild Things.
