Fiction Author Spotlight: David Mitchell

Lovers of intricate narratives and unusual plots may find much to enjoy in this author's brand of storytelling. Mitchell's most popular titles include:

Black Swan Green
Cloud Atlas
Ghostwritten
Slade House
The Thousand Autumns of Jacob De Zoet

According to the publisher, Mitchell's latest novel, Utopia Avenue, follows a British band's "turbulent life and times" and tells "of fame's Faustian pact and stardom's wobbly ladder; of the families we choose and the ones we don't; of voices in the head, and the truths and lies they whisper; of music, madness, and idealism."

July 2020 Nonfiction Highlights...

The King of Confidence by Miles Harvey

"Full of adventure, bad behavior, and insight into a crucial period of antebellum history, The King of Confidence brings us a compulsively readable account of one of the country's boldest con men and the boisterous era that allowed him to thrive."

When Truth Is All You Have by Jim McCloskey

"By the founder of the first organization in the United States committed to freeing the wrongly imprisoned, a riveting story of devotion, sacrifice, and vindication."

You Look So Much Better in Person by Al Roker

"The Today Show co-anchor Al Roker presents an entertaining guide to achieving a life of happiness and success through the power of yes!"

How to Argue with a Racist by Adam Rutherford

"How to Argue With a Racist enables us to have responsible, enlightened discourse by illuminating what modern genetics actually can and can't tell us about human difference."

Chasing the Light by Oliver Stone

"An intimate memoir by the controversial and outspoken, Oscar-winning director and screenwriter about his complicated New York childhood, volunteering for combat, and his struggles and triumphs making such films as Platoon...."

Break 'Em Up by Zephyr Teachout

"Through her expert analysis of monopolies in several sectors and their impact on courts, journalism, inequality, and politics, Teachout offers a concrete path toward thwarting these enemies of working Americans and reclaiming our democracy before it's too late."

More Forthcoming Nonfiction Titles...
