Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

The Love Songs of W. E. B. Du Bois
 by Honoree Fanonne Jeffers

"Ailey, the daughter of an accomplished doctor and a strict schoolteacher, embarks on a journey through her family's past, helping her embrace her full heritage, which is the story of the Black experience in itself."

A Psalm for the Wild-Built
 by Becky Chambers

"Hugo Award-winner Becky Chambers's delightful new Monk & Robot series gives us hope for the future" as robots relentlessly pursue a question: "in a world where people have what they want, does having more matter?"

The Women's March
 by Jennifer Chiaverini

"Inspired by actual events, this novel offers a fascinating account of a crucial but little-remembered moment in American history that follows three courageous women who bravely risked their lives and liberty in the fight to win the vote."

Novelist Spotlight: Lucinda Roy

Described as Roy's "explosive first foray into speculative fiction" and "a poignant blend of subjugation, resistance, and hope," The Freedom Race explores a dystopian American – the "Disunited States" – where a second civil war has left the nation in shambles. One person, Ji-ji, "unknowingly holds the key to breaking the grip of the Territories" and "must unravel the very real voices of the dead to free them all."

Other titles by Roy include Lady Moses and The Hotel Alleluia.
