Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

The Chalk Artist
by Allegra Goodman

"A finely rendered portrait of modern love and a celebration of all the realms we inhabit: real and imagined, visual and virtual, seemingly independent yet hopelessly tangled."

The Ministry of Utmost Happiness
by Arundhati Roy

"An aching love story and a decisive remonstrance, a story told in a whisper, in a shout, through unsentimental tears and sometimes with a bitter laugh."

Beren and Luthien
by J. R. R. Tolkien

"The tale of Beren and Luthien was, or became, an essential element in the evolution of The Silmarillion, the myths and legends of the First Age of the World conceived by J.R.R. Tolkien."

June 2017 Nonfiction Highlights...

The Ends of the World by Peter Brannen

"Award-winning science journalist Peter Brannen takes us on a wild ride through the planet's five mass extinctions and, in the process, offers us a glimpse of our increasingly dangerous future."

Kennedy and King by Steven Levingston

"As America still grapples with the legacy of slavery and the persistence of discrimination, Kennedy and King is a vital, vivid contribution to the literature of the Civil Rights Movement."

But Seriously by John McEnroe

"McEnroe confronts his demons and reveals his struggle to reinvent himself from champion and tennis legend to father, broadcaster, and author. The result is a richly personal account, blending anecdote and reflection with razor sharp and brutally honest opinions."

We Crossed a Bridge and It Trembled by Wendy Pearlman

"An astonishing collection of intimate wartime testimonies and poetic fragments from a cross-section of Syrians whose lives have been transformed by revolution, war, and flight."

The Voice of America by Mitchell Stephens

"The first and definitive biography of an audacious adventurer, the most famous journalist of his time, who more than anyone invented contemporary journalism."

Dare to Be Kind by Lizzie Velasquez

"YouTube sensation and celebrated motivational speaker Lizzie Velasquez shows us how we can learn to accept all parts of ourselves and others, and in doing so create a 'culture of kindness' and a more compassionate world."
