Upcoming Fiction Highlights...

The Lost Family by Jenna Blum

"The New York Times bestselling author of Those Who Save Us creates a vivid portrait of marriage, family, and the haunting grief of World War II in this emotionally charged, beautifully rendered story that spans a generation, from the 1960s to the 1980s."

Florida by Lauren Groff

"The stories in this collection span characters, towns, decades, even centuries, but Florida - its landscape, climate, history, and state of mind - becomes its gravitational center: an energy, a mood, as much as a place of residence."

Rainy Day Friends by Jill Shalvis

"Following the USA Today bestseller, Lost and Found Sisters, comes Rainy Day Friends, Jill Shalvis' moving story of heart, loss, betrayal, and friendship."

Nonfiction Author Spotlight: Tom Santopietro

Barbra Streisand, Doris Day, and Frank Sinatra are all subjects this Broadway theater manager and biographer has covered. In his latest book, Why To Kill a Mockingbird Matters, Santopietro dares to take on one of the greatest works of American literature, and, according to the publisher, “shows readers why To Kill a Mockingbird matters today more than it ever did before.” Other titles by Santopietro include:

Considering Doris Day
The Importance of Being Barbra
Sinatra in Hollywood
The Sound of Music Story: How One Young Nun, One Handsome Austrian Captain, and Ten Singing Von Trapp Children Inspired the Most Beloved Film of All Time
