Fiction Author Spotlight: Lauren Willig

This author writes adventurous stories as well as historical fiction and romances. Popular titles by Willig include:

The English Wife
The Forgotten Room
The Glass Ocean
The Secret History of the Pink Carnation
That Summer

Her latest novel, The Summer Country, is said to be "a brilliant, multigenerational saga in the tradition of The Thorn Birds and North and South" wherein "New York Times bestselling historical novelist Lauren Willig delivers her biggest, boldest, and most ambitious novel yet – a sweeping Victorian epic of lost love, lies, jealousy, and rebellion set in colonial Barbados."

June 2019 Nonfiction Highlights...

Chasing Moon by Robert Stone

“JFK issued the historic moon landing challenge. These are the stories of the visionaries who helped America complete his vision with the first lunar landing fifty years ago.”

The Weather Machine by Andrew Blum

“A lively and surprising tour of the infrastructure behind the weather forecast, the people who built it, and what it reveals about our climate and our planet.”

Code Blue by Mike Magee

Magee “has spent the last decade deconstructing the [medical industrial] complex, the often shocking rise of, and connectivity between, the pillars of our health system – Big Pharma, insurance companies, hospitals, the American Medical Association, and anyone affiliated with them.”

Songs of America by Jon Meacham, Tim McGraw

“America has been shaped not just by our elected leaders and our formal politics but also by our music - by the lyrics, performers, and instrumentals that have helped to carry us through the dark days and to celebrate the bright ones.”

The Doomsday Calculation by William Poundstone

“A fascinating look at how an equation that foretells the future is transforming everything we know about life, business, and the universe.”

The Royal Society by Adrian Tinniswood

“An engaging new history of the Royal Society of London, the club that created modern scientific thought.”

Nonfiction Spotlight: Suketu Mehta

This Pulitzer Prize finalist (2005), associate professor of journalism at NYU, and writer previously published in The New Yorker, The New York Times, and elsewhere, is becoming a more prominent voice in contemporary discussions concerning immigrants and immigration policies in the United States.

His latest book, This Land Is Our Land: An Immigrant's Manifesto, is described by the publisher as “a timely argument for why the United States and the West would benefit from accepting more immigrants.”

Maximum City: Bombay Lost and Found is an earlier title by Mehta.

For Further Exploration: additional books on the topic of immigration can be explored in our library system catalog (thrall.org/catalog) when performing a subject search using these phrases / keywords:

Emigration and Immigration Law

Immigrants
