Nonfiction Author Spotlight: Peter Guralnick

Guralnick's background as a music writer / critic / biographer set the stage for him to take on one of the most influential names in musical history: Sam Phillips, a music producer and owner of a pivotal record company which helped to popularize such legends as Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis, B. B. King, and Elvis Presley.

Guralnick's latest book, Sam Phillips: The Man Who Invented Rock 'n' Roll, reveals how Phillips and his company helped modernize American music, substantiate new musical genres, advance racial equality among music performers, and, as a result, influence popular culture worldwide, for decades to come.

Other popular nonfiction titles by Guralnick include: Careless Love: The Unmaking of Elvis Presley, Dream Boogie: The Triumph of Sam Cooke, Last train to Memphis: The Rise of Elvis Presley, Martin Scorsese presents the Blues: A Musical Journey, Searching for Robert Johnson, and Sweet Soul Music: Rhythm and Blues and the Southern Dream of Freedom.
