Fiction Author Spotlight: Elizabeth Berg

Berg is a master of warm and relatable stories in which regular persons often must rise to meet life's challenges, reach new understandings, and move on with fresh insight, determination, and self-respect. Among her many popular novels are:

The Art of Mending
The Dream Lover
Durable Goods
Joy School
The Pull of the Moon
Tapestry of Fortunes
What We Keep
The Year of Pleasures

Berg's latest, The Story of Arthur Truluv, is said to be “a beautiful and moving novel of compassion in the face of loss, of the small acts that turn friends into family, and of the possibilities to achieve happiness at any age.”

God

A Human History

REZA ASLAN
#1 New York Times bestselling author of ZEALOT

Nonfiction Author Spotlight: Reza Aslan

This writer, professor, and religious scholar specializes in Middle East culture and religion.

Aslan's most recent work, God: A Human History, is described by the publisher as follows: "More than just a history of our understanding of God, this book is an attempt to get to the root of this humanizing impulse in order to develop a more universal spirituality. Whether you believe in one God, many gods, or no god at all, God: A Human History will challenge the way you think about the divine and its role in our everyday lives."

Other popular nonfiction works by Aslan include:

No God but God: The Origins, Evolution, and Future of Islam

Zealot: The Life and Times of Jesus of Nazareth
